

International Symposium

NATION AND NATIONAL IDEOLOGY: PAST, PRESENT AND PROSPECTS

April 6-7, 2001

Bucharest, New Europe College

Friday, April 6, 2001

Session I: Nation, Nationalism, Ethnicity: Present and Prospects

Lucian BOIA, Professor, Dept. of History, University of Bucharest; Director, Center for the History of the Imaginary, University of Bucharest
La fin de la nation ?

Robert BIDELEUX, Reader, Politics Dept., University of Wales, Swansea
What Does It Mean to Be "European"? The Problems of Constructing a Pan-European Identity

G. M. TAMÁS, Recurrent Visiting Professor, Central European University, Nationalism Studies Center, Budapest
Etnarchy and Ethno-Anarchism

Alexandru ZUB, Director, "A. D. Xenopol" Institute of History, Iași
Nation et identité ethno-culturelle à l'époque de la globalisation

Marlène LARUELLE, Researcher, I.N.A.L.C.O., Paris
L'imaginaire oriental russe: la steppe dans le discours identitaire des eurasiens

Session II: The Emergence of the Idea of Nation and of Nationalist Ideologies. National Myths

Keith HITCHINS, Professor, Dept. of History, University of Illinois

The Emergence of the Idea of Nation among the Romanians of Transylvania

Irina LIVEZEANU, Fellow, Remarque Institute, New York University; Associate Professor, Dept. of History, University of Pittsburgh

After the Great Union: Intellectuals, Modernism, and Ethnicity in Interwar Romania

Leon VOLOVICI, Professor, Institute of Contemporary Jewry, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Comment expliquer aux étrangers «le spécifique national»? Une conférence de Mihail Sebastian

Sorin ALEXANDRESCU, Professor, University of Amsterdam; Professor, University of Bucharest

Romanian Nationalism in the Interwar Period

Catherine SERVANT, Researcher, I.N.A.L.C.O., Paris

Le «geste mystificateur» dans la culture tchèque du XIXe siècle

Simona CORLAN-IOAN, Associate Professor, Dept. of History, University of Bucharest

Une nouvelle identité pour une Afrique sans frontières nationales

Saturday, April 7, 2001

Session III: Humanistic Disciplines and National Discourse

Philip L. KOHL, Professor, Dept. of Anthropology; Kathryn Wasserman Davis Professor of Slavic Studies; Director, IPARC (International Program for Anthropological Research in the Caucasus), Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA, USA

Nation-Building and the Archaeological Record

Alexandru Gheorghe NICULESCU, Senior Researcher, “V. Pârvan” Institute of Archaeology, Bucharest; Visiting Associate Professor, Dept. of History, University of Bucharest

Nationalism and the Representation of Society in Romanian Archaeology

Ioana BOTH, Associate Professor, Dept. of Romanian Literature, “Babeş-Bolyai” University of Cluj-Napoca
Portrait du poète national en jeune dieu

Mirela MURGESCU, Associate Professor, Dept. of History, University of Bucharest
“Fatherland” and “Nation” for Schoolchildren: Textbooks and the Concept of Nationhood in Romanian Schools

Augustin IOAN, Associate Professor, Dept. of Theory of Architecture, “I. Mincu” University of Architecture and Urban Planning, Bucharest
Building National Identity. Case Study: Romanian Architecture

Session IV: Nation, State, and Civil Society

Andreas WIMMER, Professor, Zentrum für Entwicklungsforschung, Universität Bonn
Shadows of Modernity: State Building, Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict

Urs ALTERMATT, Professor, Dept. of History, University of Freiburg
Language, Ethnicity and the Nation State

Adrian CIOROIANU, Associate Professor, Dept. of History, University of Bucharest
Les avatars d’une “nation ex-communiste

Bruce A. HADDOCK, Professor, Head of Dept. of Politics, University of Wales, Swansea
Ovidiu CARAIANI, Associate Professor, Dept. of Politics and History, Polytechnic University, Bucharest
Legitimacy, National Identity, and Civil Association

Cristian PREDA, Associate Professor, Dept. of Political and Administrative Sciences, University of Bucharest
La nation dans la constitution